

Character Description

Writing Creative Non-Fiction Handout

Magnetic Magic

Who Is Your Antagonist?

Physical Features	Describe the features in as much detail as possible. Paint a picture with your adjectives.
Height
Eyes
Hair (color, texture, length) How does he/she wear it
Size of feet/What would be her/his favorite kind of shoes?
Chin
Nose
Lips/Mouth/Teeth
Describe their knees and legs bony/chubby/athletic How does she/he move?
Skin (describe so that we can see if white tell us if its rosy, or pasty, if dark, caramel colored or chocolate colored or coffee with cream, if freckled, can barely see the skin below, or just a few freckles

Personality

How would you describe your character? Fun? Serious? Smart? Know-it-all? Cute? Loner? Friendly? Loyal? Trickster? Any other characteristics? list as many as you like. Describe what makes you say that.

What likes to do for fun?

What kind of ice cream might they eat? Flavor, hard, soft, gooey?

How would he/she react if caught cheating?

How would he/she react if catches someone else cheating?

How does he/she feel about knowing things?

How does he/she feel about people who are know-it-alls?

Just like your protagonist, now you know your antagonist. You can use what you found out to describe him or her in your story. Or you don't have to use write any of this in your story, but just knowing these attributes lets you know how your protagonist will walk, behave, talk.