

Erosion Crossword

ACROSS

- 4 The plateau where hoodoos are common
- 7 Another name for a hoodoo
- 13 Wearing away of rocks and minerals by water, temperature and wind
- 14 Rock left after rushing water creates parallel canyons
- 15 Temperature changes, water, wind and ice result in this kind of weathering
- 16 Columns of rock left behind by erosion of fins
- 17 When water, carbon dioxide and oxygen change the rock into softer forms

DOWN

- 1 The area in Bryce Canyon which is full of hoodoos
- 2 Weathering and erosion work on the landscape over years, centuries and . . .
- 3 Kind of water that carves ruts, ditches, washes and canyons
- 5 Water that seeps through cracks in rocks and makes arches, pockets and caves
- 6 National park known for lots of hoodoos
- 8 Separating a piece from a mother rock by cycles of freezing and thawing water
- 9 A high, flat landform
- 10 A soft rock that erodes easily, common in the Colorado plateau
- 11 Carrying away of rock that has been weathered
- 12 Sandstone is made from sand, shells and bones deposited at the bottom of . . .
- 14 Water does this when it freezes--it pushes rock apart

Erosion Crossword

